

Terrence Leheny

203-733-6606

62 E Starrs Plain Rd., Danbury Ct,06810

tjleheny60@gmail.com

Professional
Profile

Pressman Web , Offset , Heatset .

- Customer Orientated as 1st Pressman focused on increased Production. Maintaining press with preventive maintains scheduling. To Minimizing downtime and maximizing overall press Efficiency.
- Making sure crew works in a clean and safe work area .
- Using tools of the trade to keep Quality standard High. Such as Densitometer, Torque wrench , Conductivity meter.
- Conforming to the requirements of Management and the Customer

Professional
Accomplishments

Keeping press in top condition reporting any problems to Management and Maintenance

- Replace and adjust any rollers when needed.
- Put on plates and change blankets
- Work the color and register of a job
- Maintaining proper tension of the web to prevent wrinkling or wandering.

Working together with crew to achieve the goal of running a job.

- Making sure everyone is trained on all equipment, safely.
- Remember the basics when trying to solve problems.
- Working overtime when necessary

Work History

March 1981 – July 2012

1st Pressman, Danbury Printing , Banta, RR .Donnelly, Danbury , Ct.

September 2013 – April 2014

1st Pressman, Connecticut Color, Meriden, Ct.

July 2014 - September 2016

Pressman, Panagrafix , Milford, CT.

Education

High School Diploma

Bethel High School

Bethel, Connecticut.

May ,1979.

References William Musinski – 203-733-0452, Colin Walklet – 203-984-9756, Joe Quigley – 845-797-5510, Jon Porter – 203-241-4197.